

10 Daily Chores of a Professional AI User

- 1. I make a job-related query on ChatGPT or Claude or Gemini.
- 2. I read 2 daily and 1 weekly AI newsletters. (Start with free subscriptions to therundown.ai superhuman.ai substack.com/@aifastinfo)
- 3. I try 1 new AI application / agent / tool gleaned from a newsletter or from aixploria.com
- 4. I watch 1 YouTube video on AI.
- 5. I use Perplexity or ChatGPT Search once and always ask it a follow up question.
- 6. I scan the Top 50 research capsules on arxiv.org/list/cs.AI to see what's new.
- 7. I select an interesting pdf from arxiv, download it into Claude or ChatGPT and have the AI summarize it in 200 words.
- 8. I use either Notebook LM / storm.genie.Stanford.edu / openscholar.allen.ai /
- 9. I draw a picture or make a video or create a song, and then I make one adjust it to make it better.
- 10. I write down the 3 AI things I learned today in my AI notebook.
